There are no teachers left on the mountain. King Losen's wizards destroy the sorcerers and witches. There's no one to turn to." "Seemed odd. Old woman from a village inland, never seen the sea, calling the name of an island away off like that." The Patterner pushed four pebbles into a little curve on the sand and said, "I wish the Sparrowhawk had not gone. I wish I could read what the shadows write. But all I can hear the leaves say is change, change... Everything will change but them." He looked up into the trees again with that yearning look. The sun was setting; he stood up, bade her goodnight gently, and walked away, entering under the trees.. Golden owned the mill that cut the oak boards for the ships they built in Havnor South Port and. There they fished for whales, as they still do. That was a trade he wanted no part of. Their ships stank and their town stank. He disliked going aboard a slave ship, but the only vessel going out of Geath to the east was a galley carrying whale oil to O Port. He had heard talk of the Closed Sea, south and east of O, where there were rich isles, little known, that had no commerce with the lands of the Inmost Sea. What he sought might be there. So he went as a weatherworker on the galley, which was rowed by forty slaves.. She hesitated, seeming for a moment to yield, to come to him, and then cried out, "I am not only Irian!" "He does. But, admitting it unlikely, admitting it impossible - if we did defeat him - if he went back into death and left us here alive - what would we do? What comes next?" "Yes," he said with a smile.
