"I just said that people telling them wouldn't bother them." Later on, Colman thought about Anita being brought back in a body-bag because she had chosen to follow after a crazy man instead of using her own head to decide her life. The Chironians didn't watch their children being brought home in body-bags, he reflected; they didn't teach them that it was noble to die for obstinate old men who would never have to face a gun, or send them away to be slaughtered by the thousands defending other people's obsessions. The Chironians didn't fight that way.. "Wanting to save your husband would be far from strange, and a noble sentiment indeed . . . if it were true. The inversions came from the whole insane system that the Military was just a part-of-the system that fought wars to protect peace and enslaved nations by liberating them; that turned hatred and revenge into the will of an all benevolent God and programmed its litanies into the minds of children; that burned and tortured its heretics while preaching forgiveness, and made a sin of love and a virtue of murder; and which brought lunatics to power by demanding requirements of office that no balanced mind could meet. A lot of things were becoming clearer now as the Chironians relentlessly pulled the curtain away.. "Oh, there was something I meant to show you," Sirocco said, shifting his feet from the desk and turning toward the companel. "It come in earlier this evening. Sterm asked, looking across at Stormbel, who was supervising the preparations to detach. He had intended taking advantage of the Mayflower II's cover until after the strike was launched, but the unexpected loss of the rest of the ship, coupled with Lesley's treacherous change of sides in the hexagon and the arrival of assault troops outside the Battle Module itself had forced him to revise his priorities. There would be lime point in destroying the Kuan-yin if he lost the Battle Module in the process..Howard brought a hand up to his chin sad rubbed it dubiously for a few seconds. "Mmm . . . Sterm. The Chironians traded in respect, Colman was beginning to understand as he listened to the talk around him. They respected knowledge and expertise in every form, and they showed it. Perhaps, he thought to himself, that was how the first generation had sought to compete and to attain identity in their machine-managed environment, where such things as parental status, social standing, wealth, and heritage had had no meaning. And they had preserved that ever since in the way their culture had evolved. When he realizes that he's the only occupant of the restroom, he seizes the opportunity and runs from. Well, all right, the clown car is wishful thinking, as they only appear in circuses. In fact, it's certain to be. "The scabby little pervert can't even afford a real car." "Have you ever seen a really good dog act, Ms. Tavenall?" "him nervous, and when he's nervous, he's less likely to be clever or cunning, or bold; and they will find." "I can see your point to a degree," Pernak said eventually. "But people continue to accumulate possessions long after they've ceased to serve any material purpose because they satisfy recognition needs too." "campground. Not even a real rest stop with bathrooms or a picnic table, or anything. Just this lonely wide." "At least my real dad isn't a murderer like my current pseudo-father? or as far as I know, he isn't. Is. The snake lay looped like a tossed rope on the floor, as dead as Leilani had left it. . . . but scoping the audience was a mistake. Micky stood at the bottom of the steps, and Mrs. D stood.
